

5

Ways To Organize Your Jewelry Collection

www.suzettegebhardt.com

5

JEWELRY ORGANIZATION STRATEGIES

JEWELRY CAN BE TRICKY TO STORE. AVOID LOSING OR TANGLING YOUR TINY TREASURES WITH THESE 5 JEWELRY STORAGE IDEAS. MIX AND MATCH TO CREATE A JEWELRY DISPLAY THAT IS BEAUTIFUL AND FUNCTIONAL!

Display Bust

Use one of these for your most eye catching pieces. Choose something that matches your decor or has a high sentimental value. Especially great for statement necklaces.

Jewelry Box

Choose a jewelry box based on the size of your jewelry collection.

This is a great place to keep small, delicate, and very sentimental items for safekeeping.

Pretty Bowl

Choose a pretty little dish to hold frequently worn baubles. This is a perfect way to store rings and earrings that you wear often. Place the bowl in your jewelry display area, or on your vanity for easy access.

Stackables

Stackable trays and boxes save space and keep necklaces from getting tangled. Your jewels will be easy to access and you will be able your entire collection at a glance. Like a fancy store display!

Wall Hooks

Use this trick to store longer necklaces. This method creates an artful display, protects your investments from becoming damaged, and makes choosing your daily accessories a breeze. No hooks? Just use nails!

Step By Step Organization

Suzette Gebhardt ORGANIZING

STEP

1

Take Inventory

Look at your jewelry collection + note how many of each type of item you will need to store. Review storage solution options and pull what you have from around your house. Purchase any supplies you might need.

STEP

2

Choose Location

To stay organized, it helps to keep your collection together. Look for a place to create a jewelry station.

You might consider a dresser top, vanity area or wall mounted shelf.

STEP

3

Sort + Display

Sort your jewelry in a way that makes sense to you and distribute items throughout your display.

Don't forget to style it as you go... you'll enjoy your organized collection every day!